

DECEMBER

Alford And Ashe Academy

EXPLORE HOLIDAYS STORIES WITH YOUR CHILD

Whatever holiday you recognize this season — Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanzaa, Diwali or another — you will find stories at the hearth of the celebration. Stories about magical and marvelous births, lamps that burn without oil, ones that share the wisdom of ancestors, and so many others offer that chance to explore your child's world. Whether in traditional version or in exciting, new adaptations, these stories — expresses in dance, song, plays or in book form — are rich with themes that share meaningful messages, especially for young and questioning minds.

During the Holidays children have free time, and reading offers a great way to spend time together. Talking about stories with your child furnishes an almost a magical opportunity to reinforce your

REMINDERS:

December

- December 18th: We will be making cookies
- December 21: Santa will be coming to the school. All classes will have a class party.
- December 24th: Half Day 6:30am to 12:00pm Kids will be permitted to wear their Pajamas
- December 25th: CLOSED Merry Christmas!
- December 31st: Half Day 6:30am to 12:00pm
- January 1st: CLOSED Happy New Year!
- January 8th: All classes resume (VPK)

Mrs. Zenikia

Hi my name is Zenikia Curtis. I am married with 3 kids. I have been in the childcare field on and off since 2012. I have a BA in Human services and I'm very passionate about helping others. I enjoy work with the kids at Alford And Ashe Academy. Please stop by her room and say hi....

Happy Birthday

Chase— 9th

Matas-3rd

Aaron-10th

Happy

Birthday

